

The anti-Kerry "documentary" is a commercial. This is partisan advertising that is being aired free of charge. There are laws about this kind of behavior and I expect congress to insist these laws are followed. And I expect the FCC to punish those that break them.